WHAT kind of activity?	Art Exhibition The art exhibition was created by the people who suffer from cancer. They wanted to express their ideas about the illness and reflect their experiences on the pictures they drew. Each of them spent at least a month to complete their works. Invitation cards were prepared and the staff of the hospital, the other patients and their caregivers were informed about the exhibition. It was the best atmosphere to be created. All the visitors get information about the illness, the feelings of the patients and had conversations about how to protect from and get rid of it. At the end of the exhibitions both the patients and the visitors were very happy.
